*"Traveler, there is no path. The path is made by walking."
— Antonio Machado*

For this two-hour poetry workshop, two experienced, published poets, Zara Raab & Hilde Weisert, provide an array of walking poems for discussion, and tips for reflection and writing as you stroll on the beautiful campus of Simon's Rock. In the second hour, we'll gather back together to write, read aloud and talk, with feedback from workshop leaders and other participants.
